

Vocabulary

Vocabulary related to responsible and irresponsible actions:

Recycle: To collect and process used materials (like paper, plastic, or metal) so that they can be used again to make new products instead of being thrown away.

Help others: Offering assistance or support to people who may need it, making their lives a little easier or better.

Follow rules: Obeying guidelines or instructions that are set in place, usually for the purpose of order or safety.

Please: A polite word used when you're making a request or asking for something. It shows good manners.

Thank you: An expression of gratitude used to show that you are thankful for something someone has done for you.

Excuse me: A polite way to get someone's attention or to apologize.

Littering: The act of leaving trash or waste in public places.

Wasting resources: Using more than necessary or not using them efficiently, specially talking valuable materials like water, energy, or food.

