

Vocabulary

Vocabulary related to traditional food, dress and artifacts.

Traditions: Customs, beliefs, or practices that are passed down from generation to generation. They are often a significant part of a culture or community.

Customs: Accepted or habitual practices in a society, often related to social or cultural behaviors.

Artifacts: Objects made or used by people in the past, typically of historical or cultural significance.

Cuisine: The style or method of cooking, especially as characteristic of a particular country, region, or establishment.

Traditional Clothing: Clothing that reflects the cultural or historical identity of a particular group often worn during special occasions or as a part of daily life.

Vocabulary

Vocabulary related to responsible and irresponsible actions:

Recycle: To collect and process used materials (like paper, plastic, or metal) so that they can be used again to make new products instead of being thrown away.

Help others: Offering assistance or support to people who may need it, making their lives a little easier or better.

Follow rules: Obeying guidelines or instructions that are set in place, usually for the purpose of order or safety.

Please: A polite word used when you're making a request or asking for something. It shows good manners.

Thank you: An expression of gratitude used to show that you are thankful for something someone has done for you.

Excuse me: A polite way to get someone's attention or to apologize.

Littering: The act of leaving trash or waste in public places.

Wasting resources: Using more than necessary or not using them efficiently, specially talking valuable materials like water, energy, or food.

Vocabulary

Vocabulary related to survey results and recommendations.

- 1. Survey: Asking questions to a group of people to find out what they think about something.
- 2. Like: It means you enjoy it or have a positive feeling towards it.
- 3. Tradition: Something that is done or passed down from generation to generation, like a custom or practice that has been followed for a long time.
- 4. Dislike: It means you don't enjoy it or have a negative feeling towards it.
- 5. Find out: To discover or get information about something, usually by asking questions, doing research, or exploring.
- 6. Recommend: To suggest or advice someone to do something because you believe it would be good for them.
- 7. Try: It means you give it an attempt to see how it is or if you like it.
- 8. Share: Giving a part of what you have, like objects, information, or experiences, with others so they can also benefit or enjoy it.

Vocabulary

Vocabulary related to likes and dislikes:

Like: To have a positive feeling toward something.

Really like: To have a strong preference for something.

Favorite: The thing you like the most.

Agree: To share the same opinion as someone else.

Traditional: Something that is part of a culture's long-standing customs.

Honor: To show respect and admiration for someone or something.

Fun: Enjoyable and entertaining.

Delicious: Very tasty and enjoyable to eat.

Vocabulary related to recommendations:

Recommend: To suggest something as a good idea or choice.

Try: To make an effort to do or experience something.

Visit: To go to a place or location.

Market: a place where goods are bought and sold.

Experiment: Activities conducted to learn or discover something new.

Cool: An informal term meaning great, interesting, or impressive.

Vocabulary

Phrases related to resolving conflicts:

- 1. *Let's work together: This means suggesting cooperation or collaboration with others to achieve a common goal. It implies a team effort.
- 2. *Thank you: An expression of gratitude or appreciation, used to value someone's kindness or assistance.
- 3. *I'm sorry: An apology, expressing regret for something that was said or done that may have hurt others.
- 4. *How can we solve this?: This is a question asking for a solution to a problem. It shows the necessity to work together to find answers.
- 5. *I understand: It shows comprehension or empathy. It means that you comprehend or empathize with what someone is saying or going through.

