TEACHING-LEARNING ACTIVITIES

- Activation
 - Engage students in a conversation about the importance of planning for the future and using linking words to structure complete sentences.
 - Brainstorm on the board regarding planning for the future and the use of linking words.
 - Introduce the characters from the dialogue (Lucía and Pedro).
 - Play the audio of the dialogue, making sure to replay it as needed.
 - What are Lucía and Pedro planning for the weekend?
 - Why do they want to plan their weekend?
 - Name one thing they plan to do at the beach.
 - What cultural event do they want to be part of?
 - The teacher can ask some other questions related to the level and interest of the students.
- Construction
 - In small groups, have students create a list of plans they could do as a group of students and plans they could make with their families during vacation.
 - Encourage discussion and collaboration among group members.
 - Circulate to assist and provide feedback.
- Application
 - Students will individually record an exercise provided in the resource. They will send their recordings to the teacher for evaluation, allowing for adaptation based on the students' progress.
 - The teacher can repeat the resource as needed.
 - Students will record themselves describing the plans they would like to make for the upcoming weekend.
 - They will use the dialogue and their group discussions as references.
 - The teacher may adapt the activity based on students' progress, allowing for additional recordings or introducing new evaluation tasks.
- Vocabulary
 - Explore the vocabulary section provided as a resource and, in small groups, write sentences using the vocabulary related to emotions and plans for the next weekend.

Place the vocabulary here

- Grammar
 - In groups of 2-3, reinforce grammar using the provided grammar cards to create a poster including plans for the next weekend, next month, and the next 5 years using future "be going to" correctly.
