

Vocabulary

Vocabulary related to self-assessment:

- 1. Interaction: The process of communication that involves a two-way exchange of information or actions.
- 2. Dialogue: A conversation between two or more people, where ideas, thoughts, and information are exchanged.
- 3. Mistake: An error or a wrong action, often unintentional, that may lead to a problem.
- 4. Rubric: A set of guidelines or criteria used for evaluating or grading something, like an assignment or project.
- 5. Improvement: The act or process of making something better or more effective over time.

Expressions for:

- 1. Greeting: Saying hello or acknowledging someone's presence, often accompanied by a friendly gesture.
- 2. Offering Help: Expressing a desire to assist or support someone in a task or situation.
- 3. Expressing Opinions: Sharing personal thoughts, beliefs, or viewpoints on a particular subject or matter. This can involve phrases like "I think," "In my opinion," or "From my perspective."

