TEACHING-LEARNING ACTIVITIES

• Activation

- Engage students in a conversation about the importance of diversity in the classroom.
- Conduct a brainstorming session on the board based on the discussion.
- Introduce the characters from the dialogue (María and Tom).
- Play the audio of the dialogue, making sure to replay it as needed.
 - What did Eugenia say about liking differences in the class?
 - According to Tom, what makes the class more interesting?
 - What did Tom think about giving compliments?
 - According to Maria, what do compliments spread?
 - The teacher can ask some other questions related to the level and interest of the students.

• Construction

- In small groups, have students write sentences giving compliments to each other to motivate and encourage teamwork.
- Encourage discussion and collaboration among group members.
- Circulate to assist and provide feedback.

• Application

- Students will individually record an exercise provided in the resource. They will send their recordings to the teacher for evaluation, allowing for adaptation based on the students' progress.
- The teacher can repeat the resource as needed.
- Students will record themselves giving compliments and encouraging words to their classmates, sending the recordings to the teacher for evaluation.
- They will use the dialogue and their group discussions as references.
- The teacher may adapt the activity based on students' progress, allowing for additional recordings or introducing new evaluation tasks.

• Vocabulary

- Explore the vocabulary section provided as a resource and, in small groups, create sentences discussing ways to strengthen differences and support each other.
