TEACHING-LEARNING ACTIVITIES

• Activation

- Engage students in a conversation about expressing opinions on personal interests with respect and empathy.
- Discuss ways to share points of view and learn from others' experiences.
- Conduct a creative brainstorming session on the board with the gathered information.
- Introduce the characters from the dialogue (Caro and Luis).
- Play the audio of the dialogue, making sure to replay it as needed.
 - What did Eugenia say about movies according to Caro?
 - According to Luis, what should a good movie make us feel?
 - What does Caro say about her favorite characters in "Spider-Man"?
 - How does Luis react to Caro's recommendation to watch "Super Mario"?
 - The teacher can ask some other questions related to the level and interest of the students.

• Construction

- In small groups, have students write a short paragraph recommending a place or activity of personal interest.
- Encourage students to think about the essential and general aspects others need to know to understand and enjoy it.
- Circulate to assist and provide feedback.

• Application

- Students will individually record an exercise provided in the resource. They will send their recordings to the teacher for evaluation, allowing for adaptation based on the students' progress.
- The teacher can repeat the resource as needed.
- Students will record themselves discussing their recommendation, send the recordings to the teacher for evaluation.
- They will use the dialogue and their group discussions as references.
- The teacher may adapt the activity based on students' progress, allowing for additional recordings or introducing new evaluation tasks.

• Vocabulary

- Explore the vocabulary section provided as a resource and, in small groups, create sentences about the basic and general information of a movie that others need to know to understand it.

Place the vocabulary here

• Grammar

- In groups of 2-3, reinforce grammar using the provided grammar cards to create a large poster summarizing a movie. Students must include their viewpoint written correctly at the end of it.
